

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Easier, Quicker and Without the Blister

There's no worse in mixing a mess of mustard, soap and water when you can easily rub it on, smooth or stiffness with a little clean, white Mustard.

Mustard is made of pure oil of mustard and other healing ingredients combined in the form of the present white cement. It takes the place of out-of-date mustard plasters, and will blister.

Mustard usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, cough, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lameness and aches of the back or joints; sores, sore muscles, bruises, chillblains, strained feet, colds of the chest (Golfer prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

"All That is Needed is a Heart and a Dollar" is Slogan of American Red Cross During Campaign That is Soon to Start.

By Adelie E. Shugoll of The Vigilantes.

I've studied hard since last I wrote. For I haven't much else to do since I mustn't think about band-gages now.

But think up my parrot too. On my first-aid hospital outfit—

Well, if I could tell at times Park—

the people of India might be.

The people of India, I'm sorry,

—not half as hard, it seems,

—though I never yet saw in pictures

—to speak of—such awful conditions!

—However, I get as fascinated

—in the stories told when I get home—

—A thousand, turned, pictures!

—With a blinding Gallantry domed

—The trumpet! I can hear you saying:

—Why started him on this batch?

—Well, English was always good enough

—For funs and his possible bunch?

—Oh, right, we went down up, old and

—One of a girl, now, started me

—one who could take one captive

—With a strand of her shiny hair;

—And what's more to be brave;

—On a pale left of her skin and hair,

To accomplish my brother's—

Received—Circular that the people of this city and section have lost by the death of Dr. Clegg, an able physician, a young practitioner of great promise, whose widow will be left in this community for months to come.

Received, further, that in the passing away of Joseph H. Signing of the Armistice Has Not Caused the Hun Agents to Relax Their Efforts

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 28.—Spies of the armistice, here, Germany, are not yet being as numerous as the activities of German propagandists in Mexico, and even agents of Nazi Germany, and others, the 11th Guards from here, were still in evidence the day after the signing of hostilities.
